

Student Nurse Standard Work
Medical-Surgical
Effective Date 8/19/15
Version 2

Student Nurse Evening Shift Guidelines

This is a general guide to the flow of how an evening shift should flow as it pertains to the Student Nurse Scope of Practice.

1500-1530	Observe Unit Huddle (as appropriate) Observe report from off-going RN (including EPIC, bedside handoff) AIDET, begin filling in careboard during handoff
1530-1600	Complete report from EPIC Begin patient assessments Assist patients into chairs, toileting, repositioning, help with meals and ordering
1600-1700	Continue assessments, assisting patients to chairs, toileting, repositioning, ordering meals, passing medications, ambulation, patient education Verify blood glucose completed (as appropriate) Document findings and PEEP hourly rounds
1700-1900	Continue documenting assessments in EPIC Complete medication administration Review provider orders, labs, notes for the day Patient education Review discharge plan and barriers with co-assigned Staff RN Repositioning PEEP hourly rounds
1900-2100	Meals and ordering, vital signs Medication Administration Verify blood glucose completed (as appropriate) Review labs and orders Document patient education, begin progress notes, and shift report HS cares and ADLs: bathing/showering, oral cares, walking, up to chair, repositioning, linen change, and pre-op preparation
2000-2100	Medication administration Continue HS cares, repositioning, and ADLs PEEP hourly rounds

Student Nurse Standard Work
Medical-Surgical
Effective Date 8/19/15
Version 2

2100-2200	Buddy with NA to complete I & O, repositioning, ADL status, needs of patients
2200-2230	PEEP hourly rounds
2230-2300	Review I & Os Verify documentation complete Finalize progress notes, patient education, and SBAR
2300-2330	Observe Unit Huddle (as appropriate) Observe report to on-coming RN, bedside handoff Answer call lights

Respond to call lights and alarms for patients who call throughout the day